

Bethany Outreach Partners

Global/Regional Partners

Connie Anderson/InterVarsity Christian Fellowship Intercessory Prayer: www.intervarsity.org

Connie's work includes connections/prayer partnerships with ministries, creating intercessor teams around every staff-worker, increasing prayer walking for campus movements and planting, and increasing intercession as a movement at large, all with the hope that God would plant a gospel presence on every US campus, and stir revival on those campuses.

Scott Anderson/InterVarsity, Rocky Mountain Region: www.intervarsity.org

InterVarsity-Rocky Mountain Region is a territory covering campuses in eight states, helping college students encounter Jesus in such a way that they become agents of change on campus now, and in their world later.

Marta Bennett, Kenya: www.theantiochpartners.org/bennett

Marta trains Christian leaders for service in churches, parachurch organizations, business, and government – integrating leadership with discipleship and mentoring. She also serves on the Nairobi Chapel leadership team.

Christ's Gift Academy, Kenya: www.cgakenya.org

CGA is one of the two main ministries that Bethany supports in Kenya. CGA has over 300 students; most are orphans due to the HIV/AIDS crisis.

Kathy Giske/Middle East Partners: www.kathygiske.com

Kathy is the Director of Middle East Partners, a ministry involved in strengthening the community of believers in the Middle East through leadership development and partnership. She has a particular focus on refugees and consults with organizations through Allegro Organizational Solutions. www.allegrosolutions.org

Mike and Katie Lucero/One Mission Society, Indonesia: www.wesleyinterschool.org

Mike and Katie are currently involved in ministry at Wesley International School and a local orphanage, King's Kids. Their aim is to support Christian workers, equip international students through discipleship and quality education, and serve the local community by being God's hands and feet to "the least of these."

Alex Moore/InterVarsity, Northwest: www.intervarsity.org

With InterVarsity Northwest, Alex is a specialist in evangelism and partnership development. He trains and coaches all of the new staff and interns. Additionally, as part of IV's regional leadership team, Alex helps discern how God is leading the ministry forward.

Pastor Luke Jakoya/Sheepcare Community Center and School, Kenya: www.sheepcare.org
Sheepcare School is also one of the two main ministries Bethany supports in Kenya. The school was started to offer orphans in the Soweto slum a safe place to receive a Christian education.

Esperanza Ministries, Vancouver Island, BC: www.esperanza.ca
Founded in 1937, Esperanza exists to promote healing and restoration in a place of refuge working primarily with indigenous people groups. Bethany has sent teams for over 30 years to learn from and support their community.

Alethia & Ryan White/PCUSA-Iranians in Germany:
<https://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/missionconnections/ryan-and-alethia-white/>
The Iranian Presbyterian Church in Berlin, in addition to providing worship opportunities in Farsi, helps Iranian refugees and immigrants begin a new life in Germany. Ryan and Alethia work with the pastor and social worker of the congregation to offer pastoral care to refugees.

Local Partners

King County Youth Chaplaincy: www.youthchaplaincy.org
www.facebook.com/kycycui
Bringing the Word of God in physical form, chaplains share with the youth: encouraging words, open ears, and a heart for their circumstances.

Museum Without Walls: www.museumwithoutwalls.org
Since 2001, MWW has educated over 2,500 students on racial and social intolerance through educational tours, programs, and eyewitness stories.

Mending Wings: www.mendingwings.net
Mending Wings exists to EMPOWER Native American youth and families to WALK TOGETHER in wholeness and beauty, HONOR Creator through our cultures and lives, HEAL with the help of programs that facilitate wholeness, and SHARE with others the life-changing hope we find as followers of the Jesus way, in a culturally relevant way.

New Horizons Ministries: www.nhmin.org
NHM is located in Belltown and comes alongside of youth who are experiencing homelessness on their journey toward a positive, sustainable future.

Kandelina/Seattle World School: <https://sws.seattleschools.org>, www.kandelina.org
SWS is Seattle Public Schools' culturally and linguistically diverse school for newcomer middle and high school students. It is one of only a few schools in the country designed as a preliminary entry point for refugee and immigrant children. Kandelina is the non-profit where we send support for Seattle World School. Their mission is to remove barriers to immigrant and refugee success.

Tierra Nueva: www.tierra-nueva.org

Tierra Nueva is an ecumenical ministry located in Burlington, WA, that seeks to share the Good News of God's liberation in Jesus Christ with migrant farm workers, jail inmates, Skagit Valley gang members, and those struggling with addiction.

Urban Impact: www.urbanimpactseattle.org

UI is a Christian, multi-ethnic group, striving to break the cycle of social, material, and spiritual poverty in the Rainier Valley neighborhood. They believe communities are strengthened when families are connected, resources are generated, and local assets are celebrated.

West Seattle Young Life: www.westseattle.younglife.org

Young Life is all about relationships and mentorship. Providing the gift of presence by meeting kids where they are at and on their turf.

World Relief Seattle: www.worldreliefseattle.org

In community with the local church, World Relief Seattle envisions the most vulnerable people transformed economically, socially, and spiritually. World Relief Seattle strives to be a sustainable, holistic ministry of compassion, and practical support.
